The Rev. Mr. Wright, itinerant Missionary, returned to town yesterday after having visited the different Episcopal mission chapels under his charge.

There has been a new Episcopal parish formed as Carlton. Mr. N. Peterson has been appointed the clergyman's warden and Mr. J. McKay, sr., the people's warden.

The Rev. Mr. Wright will be in charge for the present.

A concert will be given in the evening of the 24th inst., if a suitable building can be had, by the Palmer family, who will arrive in a few days. We believe they are a talented musical family, who are all masters of the violin and good singers.

Mr. Gas. Germain received a medal last mail from the Khedive of Egypt for his valuable services as one of the Canadian boatmen who went with Col. Kennedy from Winnipeg on the Nile expedition in 1884. The medal is a bronze five-point star, on the face is a raised pyramid and sphinx and on the reverse side are the letters "E.M." in monogram over which is a crown topped with a half moon and single star. We congratulate him on his receiving the medal.

TELEGRAPHIC.

(By Special Telegraph.)

Ottawa, May 13.—A conference between the Minister of Inland Revenue and representatives of different Boards of Trade on the classification of grain was held this afternoon. Manitoba and the Northwest were represented by B. G. McElin, Winnipeg; Kenneth Campbell, Brandon; and J. W. Smith, Regina.

Daly, Ross, Royal, Perley, Macdowell, Davin, Watson and Carpenter, M.P.s, were also present. The western delegates wanted the standard placed at 85 per cent. and the eastern men at 88 per cent. After some jangling, the matter was finally left with the Minister of Inland Revenue.

In the House to-day, Mr. Jones enquired what the policy would be if the fishery treaty was rejected by the United States?

Sir John said the House would be informed before prorogation.

OTTAWA, May 16.—The railway subsidy resolutions came down late to night, and there is nothing for the Hudson Bay or any other Northwest road.

The chief discussion in the House to-day was relative to the Northwest Territories Bill.

Mr. Watson charged that the Government had instituted a system of terrorism in the Territories. No one could obtain seed grain, unless he avowed himself a supporter of the Government.

Mr. Perley said that was a downright untruth. (Cheers.) Every man voted as he liked, and seed grain was distributed irrespective of party.

Mr. Watson moved in amendment that the elections be by ballot. Lost.

Mr. Macdowell suggested that the Advisory Board should consist of four instead of three members.

Sir John accepted the suggestion.

Mr. Perley wanted a clause in the Act providing for a plebiscite declaring whether the Territories wanted prohibition or high licenses at the time the Territorial elections were held.

Mr. Davis said the Territories were supposed to have total prohibition, except two gallon permits. Liquor, however, flowed in on all sides. He would also like to see a clause inserted as to whether they wanted prohibition or not.

Sir John could not agree with this, and explained why.

The Bill was read a second time.

OTTAWA, May 13.—In the House to-day business began at 13 and adjourned at 18:30 o'clock accomplishing a splendid afternoon's work. Sir Richard criticized Sir Charles' speech on the twenty-five million loan bill. He considered it ill judged for Sir Charles to allow the opinion to go forth that Canada could not hope to meet her liabilities. Tupper replied and denied having said Canada would be unable to meet her obligations, and explained he had treated the national debt as a loan in perpetuity.

The Hon. Mr. Chapleau is confined at home with a bad attack of bronchitis.

LONDON, May 13.—Lord Salisbury and colleagues have at length grown uneasy at the constant attacks of the German newspapers, the growing antipathy of the German people against England and the demonstrations of Russia towards Central Asia, and are now hastily preparing the British army and navy for any contingencies that may arise. His march's excessive tenderness for Russia and his abuse of England through the German press, causes alarm, meanwhile reports come from the Polish frontier of Russian military preparations.

Winnipeg, May 12.—Capt. Craig, one of the Prince Albert delegates to Ottawa, arrived Friday night on his way home, having come by way of Chicago and St. Paul. He was unable to give any information as to the result of his mission to Ottawa.

The Government had not decided upon any particular action when the delegates left Ottawa a week ago. However, in Canada's Bookstore. Subscriptions received for all Canadian, American and Foreign Publications at lowest rates.

CHIT-CHAT LOCALS.

The post office at Stobart has been reopened.

Ben Woodman's advertisement of sale of horses.

New goods arriving every week for T. E. Jackson.

We welcome back to town Mr. Geo. Bird and lady, who arrived on Monday last by special stage.

Goodfellow Bros. have started work in their planing mill, getting ready for the Nashit Academy building.

Sherrill's sale, at Donaldson & Penbridge's stable on Tuesday at 3 p.m., of work oxen, horses and house logs.

Butter has been very scarce in town the last few days. There will soon be a surplus, now that the cows can get grass.

Capt. Sheets, of the steamer "Northwest," and a brother of D. C. Reynolds arrived in town on the special last Monday.

Mr. Hilliard Mitchell, of Duck Lake, is seriously ill and has been confined to his bed. Dr. Porter was called to see him.

Lacrosse is very much depressed at not being able to make a match for the 24th. The beneficiaries may accommodate the lachelors.

The Blatta Insect Powder, newly imported by T. E. Jackson, will exterminate mosquitoes, house flies, bed bugs, fleas and all vermin.

Mr. Hy. Woodman has been confined to the house with inflammatory rheumatism, for the past week. We hope to see him around again shortly.

Prairie fires are still raging. We see fire in several places in the woods across the river, not far back, and still our fire guards do not seem to exert themselves.

We received by this mail a copy of the Canadian Checkmate, a journal printed in Toronto by Mr. W. H. Darlington and devoted exclusively to the games of chess and checkers. Parties interested in those games should subscribe, as it gives difficult problems and positions by all the best players.

Monopolies and Combines are a source of menace to the public welfare, and should be stamped out. So should catarrh. Mr. J. Duncan, Maple Creek, N.W.T., says:—Nasal Halm has done my catarrh good, more than all the numerous remedies I had previously tried combined. I have improved so much that I believe one more bottle will cure me.

Yesterday being Arbor Day there was no school and the Supreme Court had to adjourn, not having finished business the day before. There has been quite a lot of trees transplanted this spring through town, and we are pleased to see it, for a residence or town is never finished without them. Mr. Still and the boys of the public school transplanted a lot around the building.

At the council last Monday evening the by-law, for the purchase of the Presbyterian church and property, was read twice and at the next meeting it will be read a third time after which it will be submitted to the people for rejection or adoption as they think fit. Mr. D. Williamson has been offered the position of town constable, with full power to make arrests at any time without a warrant.

Yesterday was an eventful day in the lives of two of the young people of the town. Mr. W. J. Power led to the altar of the Collection Church Miss Stull, daughter of our respected citizen Mr. J. F. A. Stull, where the Rev. Dr. Jardine joined them together in the holy bonds of wedlock in the presence of a few friends. After the ceremony was over the party drove back to town to the residence of the bride's father, where a sumptuous repast was spread and passed off with a pleasant evening spent. We have great pleasure in wishing the young couple long life and prosperity.

NORTHWEST ASSEMBLY.

We publish this week in another column a synopsis of the Act now before Parliament creating a Legislative Assembly for the Territories, together with the boundaries of the four electoral divisions into which it is proposed to divide the district of Saskatchewan. We believe that the provisions of the Act, as it comes to us, will prove quite satisfactory. Of course there are those who will object on principle, and there will be a large number of chronic kickers who will object as a matter of course. No doubt quite a howl will be raised on account of the ballot not being introduced, but we hold that in a district such as this, where there is a very large proportion of the electors illiterate, the only practicable system of voting is that which has hitherto been in force in the Territories. The provision requiring a deposit of $100 to be made by candidates will have the effect of deterring impetuous cranks from forcing themselves on the electorate. The first election will take place at such time as the Lieut. Governor may appoint, and that will in all probability be in June or July. We have not yet heard the names of any gentlemen mentioned as probable candidates in our district, except that of our present representative in the Northwest Council, who it is rumored intends offering himself for election in Prince Albert division. Should Mr. Hughes be a candidate, he will have our warmest support, as we believe—judging by his past record—that no better man could be elected. It may be objected that he is a Government official, and therefore should not be elected. We are glad to notice that he is not legally disqualified on that account, and in answer to the objection we would point out that for the past year he has held the same Government office, but has served the constituents just as faithfully as if he had not. We are glad to see that he is received in, and we are confident will do so in the future. We would do so in the future. We would do so in the future.

ment officials, as a reference to the journals of the Northwest Council will show that these members of that body who were such officials did a great deal in the Council in defence of the interests of this district. As we have not heard from Mr. Hughes whether he will be in the field or not, we will refrain from any further remarks as to his candidature at present. The district has been very fairly divided, and the divisions should meet with the approval of all interested. A number of people appear to think that the town of Prince Albert should have a representative of its own, but we know of no reason why it should. In fact it would be almost impossible to divide the district in any other manner than that in which it has been done. There will be, of course, numerous other objections raised, and each prospective candidate would doubtless have preferred some other division. Instead of finding fault with what has been done, it behoves the electors, now that they are on the eve of an election, to look around and select the best men in the several districts as their representatives. We intend to take an independent stand, reserving to ourselves the right to support those whom we believe to be the best qualified for the position, and we hope that Dominion party politics will not be allowed to enter into the contest.

We have received from Mr. H. T. M. Phillips, a copy of his Saskatchewan Directory, just published. This work, which appears to have been carefully prepared, is replete with valuable information respecting the district and will supply a want which has been long felt. It contains short histories of Prince Albert, Battleford and other localities and brief sketches of most of the business men and the established and rising industries of those places. It also contains an alphabetical list of the settlers in the various portions of the district and a great deal of other valuable information. It is embellished with full portraits of Sir John Macdonald and Lt. Governor Doolittle and several illustrations. Of course, as might be expected in a work of this kind, there are some errors, but they are not of any great importance. We wish the directory success.

NORTHWEST ASSEMBLY.

The following is a list of the members of the Northwest Assembly, elected at the general election of 1887, and who have taken the oath of office.

The Assembly shall consist of twenty-two elected members of whom ten shall be elected from the Northwest Territories, and the remainder from the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba. The members of the Assembly shall be elected for a term of three years, and shall be eligible for re-election. The members of the Assembly shall be elected by the electors of the Northwest Territories, and the members of the Assembly shall be elected by the electors of the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba. The members of the Assembly shall be elected by the electors of the Northwest Territories, and the members of the Assembly shall be elected by the electors of the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba.

The following are the electoral divisions in the Northwest Territories: Prince Albert, Battleford, and Regina.

Battleford. That portion of the Saskatchewan lying west of the line between ranges eleven and twelve, west of the third meridian.

Prince Albert. That portion of the Saskatchewan bounded on the west by the line between ranges eleven and twelve, west of the third meridian, on the north by the northern boundary of Saskatchewan, and on the south by a line described as follows:—Commencing at the point where the north half of township 47 intersects the line between ranges eleven and twelve, west of the third meridian, thence due east to the third meridian, thence due north following the meridian to its intersection with the southern boundary of Prince Albert settlement (as surveyed by Montague, A.L.S.), thence following the northern boundary of the electoral district of Kinistino, hereinafter described, to its intersection with the eastern boundary of Saskatchewan.

Batoche. That portion of the Saskatchewan lying to the south of the line between townships 47 and 48 and bounded on the west by the line between ranges 11 and 12, west of the third meridian, and on the east by the third meridian.

Kinistino. That portion of Saskatchewan bounded on the west by the third initial meridian, and lying to the south of a line which may be described as follows:—Commencing at a point where the south boundary of Prince Albert settlement (as surveyed by Montague, A.L.S.), intersects the third initial meridian, thence following the southerly boundary of said Prince Albert settlement to its intersection with the north half of township 47, range 27 west of the second initial meridian, thence along the north half of township 47 easterly to its intersection with a line between ranges 24 and 24A, west of the second meridian, thence following the line due north between ranges 24 and 24A to its intersection with the 13th base line, thence due east following the 13th base line to the eastern boundary of Saskatchewan.

It is rumored that Sir John is being urged to call Mr. Norquay to the Senate in the place of Senator Schultz when the latter is appointed Lieutenant Governor of Manitoba, and to give him the position of Indian Commissioner when Dewdney leaves the office.
